Race Waiver - PLEASE READ – This entry contains limitations of your legal rights.

I know that running an ultramarathon race is a potentially hazardous activity that could cause injury or death. I should not enter and run unless I am medically able and properly trained, and by my signature, I certify that I am medically able to perform this event, am in good health, and am properly trained. I agree to abide by any decision of a race official relative to any aspect of my participation in this event, including the right of any official to deny or suspend my participation for any reason whatsoever. I assume all risks associated with running in this event, including but not limited to: falls, contact with other participants, the effects of the weather, including high heat and/or humidity, traffic and the conditions of the road and trail, encounters with wild or domestic animals, all such risks being known and appreciated by me. Having read this waiver and knowing these facts and in consideration of your accepting my entry, I, for myself and anyone entitled to act on my behalf, waive and release the race directors and workers, volunteers, United States of America, and all sponsors, their representatives and successors from all claims or liabilities of any kind arising out of my participation in this event, though that liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness on the part of the persons named in this waiver. I grant permission to race management to use any photographs, recordings, or other records of my participation in this event for any legitimate purpose. I also understand that the race director has the right to refuse any entry, and that my registration fee is non-refundable.
